4. Train leaders, by asking them to read a study paragraph (verses) with emphatic interpretation.
5. Ask leading questions for participants to share their insight and thoughts on each reading.
6. Ask occasionally "What is the Spirit of God, the Father and the Savior telling us in this text?"
7. After completion of all readings try to get a consensus on the overall readings and discussions.
8. Set time, date, place, and topic of study for the next group session.
9. Conclude with prayer of thanksgiving, for protection, guidance, growth, healing, harmony, and

OUR FATHER, in the heavens! Let your name be sanctified! Let your kingdom come!

Let your will be done, as in heaven even so on earth!

Give us our daily bread for tomorrow!

Forgive our sins and our debts!

As we keep on forgiving everyone, who keeps on getting indebted to us.

May you take us not through a testing trial. But rescue us from the evil!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen!

10. Whenever feasible and appropriate encourage the implementation of the Savior words:

"This, the cup, the New Testament is by means of my blood.

Do this in memory of me, whenever you may drink!"

And remember:

"I AM with you always."
